

April 30th, 2012

Dear Maddak,

The OT Toolkit was an invaluable resource for my occupational therapy students as part of their intervention class. I had the students use it regularly during class time and with assignments to generate intervention plans with client education samples for each sessions. This product helps to emphasize our role in client and family education using the written and visual tools provided in the toolkit. I have also been able to utilize it with my own home care clients!

Tracy Van Oss, DHSc, OTR/L
Assistant Clinical Professor
Quinnipiac University
Department of Occupational Therapy